

You Are the One

The Ongoing Concept

You are the one
I can't find, I can't find another
You are the one
I can't find, I can't find another
You are the one
I can't find, I can't find another
You are the one
I can't find, I can't find another

This road I travel on my own, year after year
I was an outcast to everyone that would never understand

I grew up with a guitar in my hands
But what's it mean to you
When all you saw in me was another jersey

I've never been a fan of your competition
I don't want to be on your field
Put me on stage in front of a thousand people
And I will show you how I feel

You are the one
I can't find, I can't find another
You are the one
I can't find, I can't find another like you

This road I live on my own
All the coaches thought that I was the crazy one
But when you're old and frail, six concussions past
I'll still be playing my guitar
On my guitar all the while

You are the one
I can't find, I can't find another
You are the one
I can't find, I can't find another like you

To all of those who can relate to me
Listen to what I'm about to say
You were all given a gift
Don't ever let that go to waste

I say, "Don't ever tell me what I'm supposed to be"
You say, "Don't ever tell us what we're supposed to be"
I've never been a fan of your competition
I've never been a fan of your competition

Everyone, listen up
You might not understand where my passion lies
But I know deep down, I can't find another one
I might travel the world and never make it big
But at the end of the day, I'll know that you are the one

Oh, you are the one
You are the one

You are the one

You are the one
Oh, you are the one
You are the one
You are the one
Oh, you are the one
You are the one
You are the one
Oh, you are the one
You are the one
You are the one
Oh, you are the one
