

Oh Lucinda

The Only Ones

Take the crutch away from you
And watch you fall down
It's a shame about a girl like you
Always falling down

(Aha) I see the way you're looking
It's a silent rhapsody
(Aha) I know there's something cooking
I know I seen that film before
The end is so predictable

You gotta learn to live again
That's the final twist
I really hate to see my friend
Cease to exist

(Aha) The enemy we're fighting
He's inside of you and me
(Aha) Please stop crying
I know you used to smile before
I know it's not impossible

You took my picture off your wall
Oh Lucinda (you're funny, you're so funny)
Only tried to tell you
You're heading for a fall
Oh Lucinda

(Aha) It's good to see you winning
I always did have faith in you
(Aha) The end is the beginning
I know, I've seen it in the war

(Aha) Get to your battle-stations
It's a crime against our nation
Get to your battle-stations
It's a crime against our nation

Love becomes a habit
If you see it, you gotta grab it
You gotta grab it
Grab it
