

Let the Bells Ring

The Organ

That's the way that it is I live under a bell-shaped curve for being average
I know you have been wanting to mention
I treat myself because I'm dying for attention

Then I take a sword in my hand and climb up a mountain and call the names of the people I know who will rock me in the end
Lie rest assured you'll have your own, reverberate the walls Lie rest assured you'll have your own, reverberate the halls

That's the way that it goes I climbed so bloody high I couldn't stop my bleeding nose I treat myself and it feels good so I treat more and when I spin touching you is less of a chore

And then I take a sword in my hand and climb up a mountain and call the names of the people I know who will rock me in the
end
but lie rest assured you'll have your own, reverberate the walls s
but lie rest assured you'll have your own, reverberate the halls

Let the bells ring
Let the bells ring

Let the bells ring
Let the bells ring

Let the bells ring
Let the bells ring
