The Orwells

Ten times better than the best
I'm hardly that impressed
No sense in being too kind
When you're ready for your next life
Don't pass up a good time
No such thing as too fine
Don't act like you never played me
Saw you misbehaving
Now you're living history
Take me out in your Mercedes
Let me have your babies
I need some commitment

Who do you think you are now?
All maxed out with the double down
Who do you think you are now?
West Palm Beach, live in luxury

Take me
Waiting in Miami
Brought you to the Grammys
Told me I could take my pick
Bottle service in the green room
People want to meet you
Wonder why I act like this
Four more hours to the airport
You've been such a good sport
Party like a hypocrite
But don't act like you never played me
Saw you misbehaving
Wonder why ya act like this

Who do you think you are now?
All maxed out with the double down
Who do you think you are now?
West Palm Beach, live in luxury

Doo wop
Doo wop doo doo
Doo wop
Doo wop doo doo
Doo wop
Doo wop doo doo
Doo wop do

Doo wop
Doo wop doo doo
Doo wop
Doo wop doo doo
Doo wop
Doo wop doo doo
Doo wop do

Park the car, you can stay the night
I'm booking you a one-way flight
The music's on, the mood is right
I'm working on a Friday night

The sun came out, I close my eyes
I'm wasted on a one-way flight
The music's on, the mood is right
I'm living through a one-way life
