The Orwells

Don't say you're strange, man
You're always trippin'
Wash away your face
Embrace what you're given
Don't say you're safe, man
I'm always trippin'
I'm afraid of the day
My heart stops tickin'

I don't really know her
But I guess I could show her

I never see you around
I hear you're livin' downtown
I never see you around
I hear you're livin' downtown

[?] get blamed
Are you hip? Can you get with that?
Stay away from the filth and the city rats
Same mistake that I make when I throw it back
Brings me shame on a plate
Then I send it back

I don't really know her
But I guess I could show her

I never see you around
I hear you're livin' downtown
I never see you around
I hear you're livin' downtown

I never see you around
I hear you're livin' downtown
I never see you around
I hear you're livin' downtown
