

Before The Beginning

The Osmonds

Before the beginning
We were living
Oh, so far away from here
And we called it home
But didn't stay
We knew that we could leave one day
And cry

Before the beginning
We were willing
To lay aside who we had been
And take a chance
To slip away
Or make it back to home one day
What for?

Ever since we came to be
With the plan, we learned to see
We alone would guide our destiny

In the beginning
We'd be living as we would be
He once was
To look at him, to look at me
And think someday like him I'll be
What more?

Ever since we came to be
With the plan, we learned to see
We control infinity
What more?
What more?
