

Ever since you've been gone
Some thing's been going on
I've been searching to find some way to tell you

Something's changed in my heart
All the light has gone dark
I keep trying to find all the love in you

Oh, weighing on my mind forever
Oh, can't imagine why
Girl, we had no promises live from day to day
But there's a change in my affection
Now it's time for me to say

Oh, Emily, baby, please stop loving me
One of the things of yesterday have gone
Emily, baby, won't you please stop loving me
I've lost the feeling, please understand
It's gone

(Ah... ah...)

Oh, yesterday when you called
I could tell you were fine
Nothing changed, you couldn't wait to see me

But I just can't go on
Love was here, now it's gone
How can I hold you close when I feel so far away

Been on my mind forever
Oh, can't imagine why
Girl, we had no promises live from day to day
There's a change in my affection
Now it's time for me to say

Oh-oh, Emily, baby, please stop loving me
One of the things of yesterday have gone
Emily, baby, won't you please stop loving me
I've lost the feeling, please understand
It's gone

Whoa, Emily, baby please stop loving me
One of the things of yesterday have gone
Emily, baby, won't you please stop loving me...
