

Learnin' How To Love Again

The Osmonds

I remember not too long ago I was travellin' down in the street
Looking for a place that I could hang my hat
And a place that I could rest my feet
I know that I'm in trouble just being alone

Got the bad days on the run, because I'm learnin' how to love a gain
And now I'm walkin' in the sunshine, I'm learnin' how to love a gain
I'll leave the past behind me, 'cause I'm learnin' how to love
again
Yeah, yeah, oh yeah

Life is up but it can keep you down
If there's no one there to ease your mind
I got my feet firmly on the ground
And my soul is searchin' and reachin' for the sky
I know that I'm in trouble just being alone

I got the bad days on the run, because I'm learnin' how to love
again
And now I'm walkin' in the sunshine, I'm learnin' how to love a
gain
I'll leave the past behind me, 'cause I'm learnin' how to love
again
Yeah, yeah, oh yeah

The bad days on the run, because I'm learnin' how to love again
And now I'm walkin' in the sunshine, I'm learnin' how to love a gain
The bad days on the run
