

Mirror, Mirror

The Osmonds

Mirror, mirror on the wall
I don't like your life at all
How did we ever come to be
The kind of person that I see
Mister, mister look alike

Don't we both want what is right
I want to change but can't you see
You're the one who's stopping me
You can lie and you can cheat
Step on those who kiss your feet
Do you think no one will see
Don't forget you can't fool me
