

My Mom

The Osmonds

Sometimes when the world's all dark outside
I wanna cry now
Sometimes when there's just no place to hide
I wanna die now

I close my eyes
And I can see her smile
All my tears disappear for a while
And I'd give everything that I own
To have her back home
My Mom

Sometimes when my dreams just don't come true
I'm upset now
Sometimes there's just one thing left to do
To forget now

I close my eyes
And I can see her smile
All my tears disappear for a while
And I'd give everything that I own
To have her back home

My Mom
My Mom
My Mom
And oh, how I miss her tonight

My Mom
My Mom
My Mom
My Mom
My Mom
