

Cry Some More

The Outlaws

What in the world do you want me to do?
Baby, I'm at your command
Say you don't love me
Say you don't care
Tell me; I don't understand

You try to make me stand in line
You're acting so unreal
Is it somethin' I said
Goin' out of my head
That's why I fear

I'll just cry some more, baby
(Some more)
Baby, cry some more
Oh, just cry some more, baby
(Some more)
Cry some more
I'll just cry
Cry some more

Sing me a love song, it's been so long
Need to see you smilin' again
If I could change time
I'd rearrange mine
Start all over again

You used to love me yesterday
But the fire's become a flame
I'm out of control
Can't take anymore
Yes, I lose again

I'll just cry some more, baby
(Some more)
Baby, cry some more
I'll cry some more, baby
(Some more)
Baby, cry some more
I'll just cry

Ooooooh

Well, big deal
You've been keepin' some time
But do you have to rub it in?
I know you want to do what you said
Do you have to put it over my head?

I'm not your play thing
I'm not your toy
I want you to realize
I'm a man and not a boy
Say you want me
Won't you say you will?

Cry

Cry some more
Baby, cry some more
(Cry some more)
I'll just cry some more
I can't help but cry
I want you to tell me why
You know, you treat me this way
You've got nothing to say
(Cry some more)
Uh

Just get high some more
So I can hide some more
Oh, I can cry cry cry
Cry cry some more
I can't take any more
Cry cry cry some more
Cry cry cry some more
I'm not cryin' no more
Cry (cry)
Cry (cry)
Cry (cry)
Cry (cry)
Cry some more
Wooooh
