

Whoops

The Overtones

Hey, take a look at me, I'm the King of catastrophe
A sentimental fool with my heart on my sleeve
And when it comes to love, I'm my own worst enemy.
Crazy it don't make no sense. I try to put it down to experience
I wanna stop but I can't get enough
Like a merry-go-round and around again... and again

Reading all the signs, in between the lines, Never comes too easily
Every step I take leads my heart to break, it's worth all the misery.
Whoops there I go again
I can't pretend, just like a riddle, caught up in the middle
Whoops, there I go again, My heart goes boom, my head is spinning,
I'm back at the beginning
Whoops, whoops (ba do dum ba) Whoa
Whoops Whoops yeah ay ay ay
Whoops whoops (ba do dum ba) Whoa
Whoops Whoops (ba do dum ba)

I'm a loser in this game of love, I always hope the next one's from up above
I try but I can't resist this feeling's so strong, and I can't get rid of it
Reading all the signs, in between the lines, never comes too easy to me
Every step I take leads my heart to break, it's worth all the misery.
Whoops there I go again
I can't pretend, just like a riddle, caught up in the middle
Whoops, there I go again,

My heart goes boom, my head is spinning, I'm back at the beginning
Oh, I know I'll find the love that's true. I'm gonna keep on searching, searching Searching my whole life through
Whoops there I go again
I can't pretend, just like a riddle, caught up in the middle
Whoops, there I go again,
My heart goes boom, my head is spinning, I'm back at the beginning
Whoops there I go again
I can't pretend, just like a riddle, caught up in the middle
Whoops, there I go again,

My heart goes boom, my head is spinning, I'm back at the beginning

ing

Whoops, whoops (ba do dum ba) There I go

Whoops, whoops, there I go again

Whoops Whoops, On my own again

Whoops, Hey, whoops, cos I'm back at the beginning.
