It Couldn't Be Better

The Ozark Mountain Daredevils

Now a tear Leaves you only a trace And the sun Finds its way to your face

It couldn't be better,
It couldn't be better, Lord
Than it is right now

And the one
That you gave all your charms
Finds his way
To the depth of your arms

It couldn't be better,
It couldn't be better, Lord
Than it is right now

It couldn't be better,
It couldn't be better, Lord
Than it is right now

Than it is right now Than it is right now
