

True Love

The Ozark Mountain Daredevils

God bless the lovers and god bless the others
Who wait in the wings for a chance
And god bless the angels, and god bless the strangers
Who don't know the tune or the dance
They say I'm a dreamer, a long shot believer
But I think the point has been missed
So god bless the lonely and god bless the only
True love that might not exist

Stars burn so high above
And hearts yearn for their true love
Sad songs sing how it was
And hearts long for their true love

God bless the saved ones, the good and behaved ones
Who sleep like a baby at night
And god bless the haunted, the feared and unwanted
Who can't tell the dark from the light
They say I'm a drifter, but if I was with her
They'd see me fall right in line
So god bless the lonely and god bless the only
True love that's so hard to find

Stars burn so high above
And hearts yearn for their true love
Sad songs sing how it was
And hearts long for their true love

True love
True love
True love, that's all it was
True love
True love
True love, that's all it was
True love
True love
True love, that's all it was
