

Everyone Looks Like Everyone

The Pack A.D.

The elevator opens for no one
And plans are makin' me
I'm paralyzed into you
And plans are makin' me
And plans are makin' me

Everyone looks like everyone
Just like snowflakes, we're already myth
Just too busy to accept it
And we are ready myth
And we are ready myth

Everyone looks like everyone
Passing days just likes batons
This one time, this friend of mine
No, wait, that was me
No, wait, that was me

The elevator opens for no one
Its talons are right in me
Didn't even see it comin'
For all the just alike birds
For all the just alike birds
If you think this is your story
Just 'cause you got in the way
Doesn't mean it's your story
You just got in the way
You just got in the way

Hey, it's that actor, you know the one
He made that movie you all know so well
Hey, it's that actor, you know the one
He made that movie you all know so well
So well
So well
Alright

The elevator opens for no one
Its talons are right in me
Didn't even see it comin'
For we are just alike birds
For we are just alike birds
For we are just alike birds
For we are just alike birds
