

It's a monster
I know it is
Nobody's talkin'
But I know it is
Oh
That's nothin' new

Here's the map to the road to the bridge
You'll find me there
K Stomp

All this thunder is crashin' down
Don't know nobody
And it don't feel right
Oh
Don't feel right

Here's the map to the road to the bridge
You'll find me there
K Stomp

All this terror, it's all around
They don't know me, but it's all around
Oh
It's gettin' weird

Here's the map to the road to the bridge
You'll find me there
K Stomp

Physically, she's perfectly healthy
There have been no outward signs of cumulative damage to her head
The only thing that seems to be affected are her...
Patterns of speech
What lays in store for Cindy's future, it's hard to say
There's no crystal ball
And we can only partly say age
And time will tell
Until then, we will continue our research
In finding new and better ways
Of protecting Cindy's head

Soon enough it doesn't change
Oh, it doesn't change

Here's the map to the road to the bridge
You'll find me there
K Stomp
