

They wandered out
In the middle of the night
But I don't know why
Hey, did you know?
The moon is full
Hear the howlin' wolf

Oh, the young act so strange

Boys, cut your nails
But we do every day
They grow anyway
Leaving so soon?
Your rooms are a mess
You better stay and clean

Oh, the young act so strange
I mean, what's with the kids today?
Like predators in search of prey
Nights after night
Comin' home with blood on their faces
Why?

Born in the light
In its luminous wake
When it pulls the tide
Boys, listen now
Wildlife on the loose
You better stay inside

Oh, the young act so strange
I mean, what's with the kids today?
Like predators in search of prey
Nights after night
Comin' home with blood on their faces
Why?

Sometimes I just can't relate
I don't cook, they've already ate
Nights after night comin' home in torn clothes
Why?
