

Nightcrawler

The Pack A.D.

A subtle slayer
Ruined kids again
They put their lights out
It's all dark again
And what about parents?
They lost their kids again
And their answer:
Holding hands again

Whoa, children
Falling down a hole
They put their lives out
Now they're in a hole
And what if we're cancelled?
Not so good now
And what about future
Without kids around?
