Kurt Cobain's Cardigan

The Pains of Being Pure At Heart

You say tomorrow is gone, tomorrow's not gone Just let it come I'll walk the length of your town, 'til no one's around Except us punks

The way we are now it's alright So don't tell me it's the last night of our young lives The way we are now, it's alright So don't tell me it's the last night of our young lives tonight

Again, again stop trying to win The things that you want, I'll never miss We've got a rainbow of sound, so tell me what's wrong With cum and bliss

The way we are now it's alright So don't tell me it's the last night of our young lives The way we are now, it's alright So don't tell me it's the last night of our young lives Won't you come with me tonight?
