

Wisdom Tooth

The Pale White

If you wanna hide
I'll count to ten this time
Now I want you out, but also in my mouth
Your camouflage, hiding now
Matador, is me painted red

You're my wisdom tooth and I need you ow-out
My gums bleed for you cause I need you

I open the door, but no that wasn't enough
I've got this deficiency, my calcium queen
This camouflage (your camouflage)
Hiding now (you're hiding now)
The matador (the matador)
Is drowning in red

You're my wisdom tooth and I need you ow-out
My gums bleed for you cause I need you

Giving up
Take what you want
Now I want you out

You're my wisdom tooth and I need you ow-out
My gums bleed for you cause I need you out

You're my wisdom tooth and I need you ow-out
You're my wisdom tooth and I need you
