

Standing in the Rain

The Paper Kites

Try to see what it means to say
"Break my bones and I'll praise the pain"
Don't take shelter, stand in the rain
It's meant to feel that way

Tired from all those things that you take
Always fighting keeps you awake
Crying when your heart seems to break
It's meant to feel that way

Hiding till you're numb and you're grey
That's no way to try win the day
Life wants you to feel it and say
"It's meant to feel that way"
