

Who I've Become

The Paramedic

They have to hear me now
Cause I've got something to say
I can't get lost in the crowd
No it won't end this way

"Speak up, Speak up"
Is what they said
"You got this man,
Don't lose your head."
They put so much faith
Into where I stand
But they don't even know
Who I am

Who can I expect to blame
When they all just sound the same?
I believed in what they taught.
So why do I still feel so lost?

Is this who I've become?
Am I just another one,
Who holds onto
Their pride
While I'm
Screaming inside? (2x)

Oh
Oh Yeah,
Yeah
I've watched all these years slip by
And now I'm left to wonder why
I feel like I just don't belong
But I'll no longer bite my tongue

I'm pissed off
I'm angry
But I've made the choice
To put up, not shut up
So why can't I find my voice?

Yeah

Is this who I've become?
Am I just another one,
Who holds onto
Their pride
While I'm
Screaming inside? (2x)

[Solo]

Is this who I've become?
Am I just another one,
Who holds onto
Their pride
While I'm
Screaming inside? (2x)
