

After All

The Parlor Mob

We can't stay this way forever
Time is falling like the leaves
From the trees for us
Find our darkest days, together
Are now all that I know

The sun won't rise
And the rain won't fall
And the seas won't part for you
After all
And the sun won't rise
And the rain won't fall
And the seas won't part for you
After all

Inbetween the floor and ceiling
Motion swells against my chest
To suggest, some change
Fear for words, has little meaning
But can cut like a knife, yeah

The sun won't rise
And the rain won't fall
And the seas won't part for you
After all
And the sun won't rise
And the rain won't fall
And the seas won't part for you
After all
After all
After all

The sun won't rise
And the rain won't fall
And the seas won't part for you
After all
And the sun won't rise
And the rain won't fall
And the seas won't part for you
After all
