

Lost Love

The Pentangle

Meeting you on a crazy high
Smiling sweetly With a lovers sigh
Love is lost, love is lost
Lost in a dream
Of broken hearts searching for love
How come you too have lost love?
Morning breaks and shines upon her hair Tumbling freely
On her pillow there Love is lost, love is lost
Lost in a dream
Of broken hearts searching for love
How come you too have lost love?
My sleeping beauty sleep the morning long When you awake
You'll find your prince has gone
Love is lost, love is lost
Lost in a dream
Of broken hearts searching for love
How come you too have lost love?
