

Season Of The Witch

The Phantoms

When I look out my window
Many sights to see
And when I look in my window
So many different people to be

And it's strange
So very strange
You got to pick up every stitch
You got to pick up every stitch
You got to pick up every stitch
Oooh yeah, must be the season of the witch
Must be the season of the witch
Must be the season of the witch, yeah
Must be the season of the witch

When I look over my shoulder
What do you think that I see?
Someone else is lookin' over
His shoulder at me

And it's strange
It's very strange
You got to pick up every stitch
The rabbits runnin' in the ditch
Everyone's out to make it rich
Oh no, must be the season of the witch
Must be the season of the witch
Must be the season of the witch, yeah
Must be the season of the witch

When I look over my shoulder

It's very strange
Very strange
