

The Posh Tiger

The Phoenix Foundation

You're my lover and I'm under cover
A fool disguised as a man
And it's not part of my higher plan
To fall in love
I'm consuming and I've been consumed by feelings that had to be exhumed
And I hope that I've not presumed too much of you

Not a lot that I can do about us
Not a reason in the world to make a fuss
Because you're my lover and I'm undercover
A fool disguised as a man
And it's not part of my higher plan
To fall in love
