

Lemon Drops

The Pillows

Unskillful play and sugary voice
Self-confident girl's thoughtless idea just funny
What is it? first taste
just fuzzy

My honest rule was broken right away
And you removed my fetter easily
I can fly, I can fly and I dry
This feeling is true

I want to hear more her songs
Hello, Hello, her rock
It's homesick, and new and unique
That changed my world

The word which is probably unfounded
Though it's so, it has been attracted
I will try, I will try
And I cry
This feeling is real

I want to hear more her songs
Hello, Hello, her rock
It's homesick, and new and unique
That changed my world
Break that wall
And shake this soul
That changed my all

I want to hear more her songs
Hello, Hello, her rock
She makes me excited many times
I want to hear more her songs
Hello, Hello, her rock
It's homesick, and new and unique
That changed my world

That changed my world
That changed my all
More lemon drops!
