The Pillows

We walked a forest for a long time
We passed each other with an owl
That laughter of the animals
I fired this gun many times

We just went through a forest suddenly
There is nothing dumbly here
On the huge white stone
We look like lost child's ant

I felt nothing any more
I'll stand as the flat world now

I won't wait for a morning now
As I just open my eyes
I'm breathing like a machine
What on earth happened to me ?

I felt nothing any more
I'll stand as the flat world now

We found someone's footprint today
My feeling moved after a long time
This cruel world may be
The way everyone passes
Can we start newly again ?
Can we start newly again ?
