The Pillows

Free You have freedom What you're looking for It's right there Free You have freedom You may doubt it but the world keeps spinning Leaving footprints behind Free You have freedom The dream you lost It's right there Free You have freedom Though you avoid it, though you just laugh The everyday will drain you

Fuck you, humans A voice from space thunders from above Ripping off half the animal's skin And selling it right away Fuck you, humans Showing your dark curiosity It's like you're trying to find out How far your bullying can go As a child, I noticed That if you squint, you can read The mark on the walls of my heart
'SAMPLE no. 0001'

The revelations of the gods are the voice of money * Whatever you pick you can't use it The revelations of paper are the voice of money Even a slave can't work Information collect call Shame-red disinformation call What are you trying to peek at Where are you trying to climb Fuck you, humans Stuffing your mouths with dog food Spiteful losers 'Kennel ch.00000002'

The sun's light, it's burning It's shining on you, don't hide The song of your birth Sing it loud for the world And make it tremble once again

Free You have freedom What you're looking for Is your will Free You have freedom Stretch out that hand and forgive everything Open the window and laugh Free free free free
