

Second Chance

The Pineapple Thief

A second chance, the lucky ones
To take my hand, and view the world
Through my eyes
Just view the world
Through my eyes

I know that you said that you only bring us down
To the depths where you don't belong
Just stay in my arms and you're giving us a chance

A second chance, for all of us
And one cruel hand, can ruin us
So take my hand

I know that you said that you only bring us down
To the depths where you don't belong
Just stay in my arms and you're giving us a chance
