

The Sorry State

One false move into this sorry state
One poor soul in this lonely space
One heart to shoulder all the blame
A single cloud for you pouring rain

It turns cold, when the world unfolds
When one false move can turn your world
Inside out

Settle down into your sorry state
The world won't move in your darkened place
I can't move here? Shoulder all the blame
A single cloud is rearing up again

It turns cold, when the world unfolds
When one false move can turn your world
Inside out

It turns cold, when your world unfolds
And one false move can turn your world
Inside out

Inside out

The Pineapple Thief
