

What Ever You Do, Do Nothing

The Pineapple Thief

It's slipping away
You're catching the days
You cannot regret
What can you expect

What ever you do, it's not enough
Time tricks you out, and calls your bluff (this time)

What have you become?
It's over and done
You cannot appeal
The ending is real...

What ever you do, it's not enough
Time tricks you out, and calls your bluff (this time)
