

Easier Than Ever

The Pink Spiders

I remember like a hundred million reasons why ya
Thought it better to be dead than to be cool
Now we're neither, ever older like the changing colors
Thanks a million little chameleon

This'll send me on a bender, say whatever you should Say to people turning every single screw
I should probably throw my phone into the ocean 'fore I
Say another word to you

'Cause baby I'm easier than ever
I had a hairpin trigger now I'm real laid back
So if we can't get back together
That's not a problem

Every now and then I get a little sentimental
I'm in the liquor store and thinkin' about you
I'm so pitiful and cynical and temperamental
There's no keepin' up with you

'Cause baby I'm easier than ever
I had a hairpin trigger now I'm real laid back
So if we can't get back together
That's not a problem

Easier than ever
I had a hairpin trigger now I'm real laid back
So if we can't get back together
That's not a problem

'Cause baby I'm easier than ever
I had a hairpin trigger now I'm real laid back
So if we can't get back together
That's not a problem

Easier than ever
I had a hairpin trigger now I'm real laid back
So if we can't get back together
That's not a problem
