

Stoned To The Bone

The Pink Spiders

Hungover and over again like a lie that reminds How boring it is to be falling apart all the time
Lose hold of the weight of regret
Keep rollin' your own cigarettes
You heard the commercial, it said you can sleep when you die

I said it already, let's skip to the part where we find
How lonely it is to be falling in love all the time
I'm not what's inside of my skin
Can't even remember the spins
They sold us together forever, a hell of a line

I was in a bad place, darling, but I just can't leave it alone
It was like a death cult, baby, and I'm bummed out, stoned to t he bone

Stoned to the bone
Stoned to the bone
Stoned to the
Bone

Hungover and over and then you awaken to find
Your terrible teeth that are grinding your poor little mind
Lose hold of the weight of regret
Keep rollin' your own cigarettes
You heard the commercial, it said you can sleep when you die

I was in a bad place, darling, but I just can't leave it alone
It was like a death cult, baby, and I'm bummed out, stoned to t
he bone

I was in a bad place, darling, but I just can't leave it
It was like a death cult, baby, and I'm bummed out, stoned to t
he bone

Stoned to the bone
Stoned to the bone
Stoned to the
Bone

I was in a bad place, darling, but I just can't leave it alone
It was like a death cult, baby, and I'm bummed out, stoned to t
he bone

I was in a bad place, darling, but I just can't leave it
