

Red Sails In The Sunset

The Platters

Red sails in the sunset, way out on the sea
Oh, carry my loved one home safely to me
She sailed at the dawning, all day I've been blue
Red sails in the sunset, I'm trusting in you

Swift wings you must borrow
Make straight for the shore
We marry tomorrow
And she goes sailing no more

Red sails in the sunset, way out on the sea
Oh, carry my loved one home safely to me

Swift wings you must borrow
Make straight for the shore
We marry tomorrow

Red sails in the sunset
Way out on the sea (Ooh-wee-ooh, wee-ooh)
Oh, carry my loved one
Home safely to me
