

Alive

The Poodles

I don't need no final destination
I don't have a master plan
I don't look for riches 'cause what I have learned
What I treasure are things that money just can't buy
I just can't buy

I'm alive! I'm alive!
Breathing, it's wonderful
I'm alive, alive!
A feeling unstoppable

This is my way to magnify
The inconceivable gift of life
I'm alive! I'm alive!
I'm burning, burning, burning!

Some days the news just bring me down
I don't say I'm always strong
But I'll rise and pick the pieces up again
Go on, move on, up until the very end
The very end

I'm alive! I'm alive!
Breathing, it's wonderful
I'm alive, alive!
A feeling unstoppable

This is my way to magnify
The inconceivable gift of life
I'm alive! So alive!
I'm burning, burning, burning!

I'm alive! I'm alive! So alive!

This is my way to magnify
The inconceivable gift of life
I'm alive! So alive!
I'm burning, burning, burning!
