Once I was a very young man, and very young man are none to clever Sailed across to faraway lands And farway towns of tin an terror Ran amok in a strip called love Lost my mind in the streets of neon Now I'm coming on back Help me up move right, left foot forward Oh we had a merry old time, but merry old times don't count for nothi ng Cocaine, song and women and wine Memories blur and they make me shudder Bed in the morning, eight, four, five, couple of days to get my head off

Now I'm comming on back Help me up move right left foot forward To Gho Gho Gho Gho Gho Gho Gho (Occo coc cocco cocc) I'm troubled by gho Gho Gho Gho Gho Ghosts in heaven Occo coc cocco

Far below the shiniest stars, shiniest stars won't shine for ever Take your soul and you can go far, If you don't fall from grace of favor Golder weights are those who star You can take now and I'll take never

Now I'm comming on back Help me up move right left foot forward To Gho Gho Gho Gho Ghooo Gho Gho (Occo coo coccoc cocc) I'm troubled by gho Gho Gho Gho Gho Gho Ghosts in heaven Occo coc coccoc cocc Gho Gho Gho Gho Ghooo Gho Gho I'm troubled by gho Gho Gho Gho Gho Gho Ghosts in heaven Occo coc coccoc cocc Occo coc coccoc cocc

Soon I'll be a very old man, and very old men they dream of summers Spent with falls in faraway clans While hometown crowds sing hymns of courage Ran amok in a strip called love Lost my mind in the streets of neon Now I'm coming on back home Help me up move right left foot forward
