

Rock Bottom

The Prize Fighter Inferno

I'm going to leave here with nothing
Empty-handed I fear
But the absence brings that something
In my mind's eye I see it so clear

This is all that I've got
Just remember to stop
And love all the ones around you
Cause they won't stick
Cause they won't stick around forever

Stand back
You made it a bad habit of
Showing us that you just don't care
Tell me now
Did you think you had that something?
Harder than the floor
This heart's hit rock bottom

It's just too easy to plot your revenge
Than to finally accept
The flaws and then mend them
This thing that we got
This fire don't stop
We burn down the house around us
Don't cut off
Don't cut off your nose to spite your face

Stand back
You made this a bad habit of
Showing us that you just don't care
Tell me now
Did you think we had that something?
Harder than before
This heart's hit rock bottom

Your eyes pan over her body
Cold as ice there will never be somebody
As good as she was
You'll never feel at home

Stand back
You made this a bad habit of
Showing us that you just don't care
Tell me now
Did you think we had that something?
Harder than before
This heart's hit rock bottom

Don't send me out baby don't you let me go
Don't send me out baby don't you let me go
Don't send me out baby don't you let me go
Oh this heart's hit rock bottom
This heart's hit rock bottom
Tell me now, don't you

Don't send me out baby don't you let me go

Don't send me out baby don't you let me go
Don't send me out baby don't you let me go
Oh this heart...
