

Kill Everyone

The Project Hate MCMXCIX

I am the Almighty, I'll be the end to this tragedy
I am the Almighty, I'll bring you death and harlotry

I was there, I saw it all go down in flames
I was there and I watched it burn
Weak aside as I must destroy the holy race
Bring them, bring them all to me I can see what's here and what's beyond what's here
I can see it's everything
They will drown in the deepest depths of holiness
Redemption, bring them all to me

Now, walk with me again, then kill everyone
Walk with me to the end, then kill everyone
Rest in darkness now, my friend, then kill everyone
Saved to be a sacrifice to me
Kill, kill, kill, kill, kill

I am the Almighty, I see the end to this misery
This is I, a harlot disguised in divinity

You're not welcome anymore
Whore, you're not welcome here
This cleansing is upon us
Jehova's demise, the greatest sacrifice is now

Extermination, God's last salvation
The reaping of beliefs
Black seeds of hatred, God's last temptation
A mass burial to be

I'm here, The Beast is alive
I'm here, The Beast is alive

Sick congregation, the grand death of God
The pleasures of deceit
Black seeds of hatred inside their blood
A mass burial for me

Don't beg me to save you, there's no one to blame
You're dead anyway, then kill everyone
Be ready for slaughter and eternal pain
You're dead anyway, then kill everyone
Don't beg me to save you, your God is to blame
You're dead anyway, then kill everyone
Be ready for torment and eternal shame
You're dead anyway

Unchain the beast, this is your day to die
Let the blood define the sky
Kill the light, you failed to cleanse the sins
I have inside
This is your day to die

Ascending from the well of death
Where kings and slaves are all the same
The reaping of souls is now, these funerals are mine

You're not welcome here, you're not welcome here

Don't beg me to save you, there's no one to blame
You're dead anyway, then kill everyone
Be ready for torment and eternal shame
You're dead anyway, then kill everyone
Don't beg me to save you, your God is to blame
You're dead anyway, then kill everyone
Be ready for slaughter and eternal pain
You're dead anyway

The sword of darkness, slashing wrists and throats
Eternal vengeance
Lead them to their own salvation
Harvester of sacred blood
The sword of darkness, slashing wrists and throats
Eternal vengeance
Lead them to their own salvation
Harvester of sacred blood

Don't beg me to save you, there's no one to blame
You're dead anyway, then kill everyone
Be ready for slaughter and eternal pain

You're dead anyway, then kill everyone
Don't beg me to save you, your God is to blame
You're dead anyway, then kill everyone
Be ready for torment and eternal shame
You're dead anyway

In the shadows of your Saviour
There's nothing left but failure
Detesting the words
Spewn forth into my face
Your dead prophet's race
This is mine, this is yours

His final words, His final breath
Will leave us all in emptiness
What is said and what is done
The crowning of the Serpent Son

Spineless since birth, a coward among cowards
Darkness is coming like a veil
No need to pray ever again
Their wretched souls are bound to rule this world
Destroy this Earth

A spawn of the absurd, a creation of the scorned
Sworn to deny courage
A spawn of the absurd, a creation of the scorned
Sworn to deny courage, destined to murder

Don't beg me to save you, there's no one to blame
You're dead anyway, then kill everyone
Be ready for slaughter and eternal pain
You're dead anyway, then kill everyone
Don't beg me to save you, your God is to blame
You're dead anyway, then kill everyone

Be ready for torment and eternal shame
You're dead anyway

All I see is darkness and despair
If I could I'd save you, but I won't be there
Unraveled, divine, my work continues
I'll kill everyone, I'll kill everyone,
I'll kill everyone

Letting the blood spill through centuries of lunacy
Assassin of light, devourer of blasphemy
Letting the blood spill through centuries of lunacy
Assassin of light, all hail thee
