

Legions

The Project Hate MCMXIX

I am legions

The Lord is not my shepherd for I am not a sheep
The kingdom of the sickening is where they live and breathe
Arise through the ashes, as Phoenix among men
The kingdom of the crucified,
His followers and His reign

The Lord will be my shepherd
For, yes, you are His sheep
The beauty of His light
In Hell your soul will be
In hope I walk with Him
In death you walk with me
I spread my wings and fly
In Hell for eternity

This time there's no return
This time everything will burn
If you could see what I have seen
This time there's no return
This time we all will burn
If you could see what I have seen
There would be no faith in you

No faith in the legions that betrayed me
No faith in the legions that failed me
No faith in the legions that betrayed me
No faith in thee
No faith!

I deny! I deny this horde of parasites
I'm the light! I'm the light! I deny!
I defy! I'm the light! Kill them all!

Kill, kill, kill, kill, kill them all!
Kill, kill, kill, kill, kill them all!
Serpent Christ, I deny you!
Kill them all, kill them all!

Kill, kill, kill, kill, kill them all!
Kill, kill, kill, kill, kill them all!
Kill the preachers who have failed you!
Kill them all, kill them all!

These visions in blood foresee the end of your God
I'm the King in this legion of vermin
Death is my name, I bring mankind to its grave
It is carved into my flesh
A liar decrowned in filth and disgust
He is a slave in His legion of snakes
Deceit is His name, he brings His kind to their graves
I burn my name into His flesh

Awaken from this rapture

Save me from this nightmare

Tragedy, it's such a tragedy
Willing to die for someone who wouldn't die for you
Tragedy, it's such a tragedy
Tragedy to die in vain for His insane reign

Travesty, it's such a travesty
I will not die for someone who will not die for me
Heresy, the words of heresy
Tongue of the snake, the venomous insane reign

I witness the end of humanity
Coming down as storms through the sky
This is the day when man becomes snakes
All seals are finally broken
And all trumpets are blown
Chaos and fire reign above all
I witness the birth of insanity
Coming down as death through the sky
I spew my venom into His birth
Their hearts painted with blood
Behold their eyes purified with heresy
I am legions, forever to be

The words of the heretic
We are now doomed to destruction
The charm of this serpent's death
Ascend and destroy, revelation
He speaks of death and sin
We are now one with destruction
The lies that lie within Descend and destroy, revelation
A beautiful sound from the distance
I wonder who this might be...
I prayed to my Saviour to save me
I think He's coming for me...

Orchestrated murder, creating symphonies of death
Desecrate the ground where we have burnt His flesh
Orchestrated murder, creating symphonies of death
Desecrate the ground where we have buried you and yours
The sound of total darkness, this beautiful deafening sound
Orchestrated murder, orchestrated bliss

This time there's no return
This is the time when your Son will burn
If you could see what He has seen
Liar!
This time there's no return
This time we all must burn
If you could be what I've become
There would be no faith in you
There would be no faith in you
There would be no liar

I am legions

No faith in the legions that betrayed me
No faith in the legions that failed me
No faith in the legions that enslaved me

No faith, I am legions!
No faith in the legions that betrayed me
No faith in the legions that failed me
No faith in the legions that enslaved me
No faith in me
