

Our Wrath Will Rain Down From The Sky

The Project Hate MCMXCIX

If you see what I've seen
You wouldn't be what you are
You serve the lies
I'm the son of the morning star
Sinners repent
Cleansing malevolent
You will find no light here

Love is dead, love is dead
In this vacant heart there is no light

We killed it, we raped it, desecrated and destroyed it
Mouth open, your saviour, only to find glorious betrayal
Grant blasphemy eternally, today's the day, show them
the way
I rise above, I deny the whore, I detest everything that he stands for

An eclipse of the sun
Ah, heavenly torment
Come with me...
I shall give you everlasting pain
Through the blackest of hearts
Ah, come with me...

You have forsaken love
You have forsaken...
You have forsaken light
This is everlasting torment

These kisses of fire light up the night
As we make love by black firelight
Death entangled, death's powers unleashed

Our wrath will rain down from the sky
And there's a new truth to unfold
Murdered heavenly creatures lie
Scattered, their bodies so cold

Forgiveness is punishment, redemption is bliss
I'll turn you cold, I'm the Judas' kiss

Shed His blood in the name of your Father
Cry His name forever after
Bring the throne to its rightful home
To hell where it belongs

Shed His blood in the name of your Father
Cry His name forever after
Bring the throne to its rightful home
To hell where it belongs

Let the flames devour us my love
Let there be no sun, there must be no sun
An eclipse... Ah, heavenly torment
I shall give you everlasting pain

As you saw them drown, did you feel much shame?
In the name of god, would He do the same?
Confess - I am the Lord of a thousand names
Confess - in the name of god
Confess - with saltrubbed eyes
Confess - in the fires again

Ah, heavenly, heavenly torment
Ah, heavenly, heavenly torment

Our wrath will rain down from the sky
And there's a new truth to unfold
Murdered heavenly creatures lie
Scattered, their bodies so cold

We killed it, we saved it, desecrated and destroyed it
Mouth open, your saviour, only to find glorious betrayal
Grant blasphemy eternally, today's the day, show them
the way
I rise above, I deny the whore, I detest everything
that He stands for
