

Through Fire There is Cleansing

The Project Hate MCMXCIX

As we behold the burning of their souls
The sky is falling down on us
Incinerate their feeble race and what's to come
Now crown me the new King, The Betrayer

Remove their tongues for they must not speak
Carve out their eyes for they must not see
Remove their ears for they must not hear
Carve out their hearts, carve out their hearts

Consumed by fire as I scream
Through fire there is cleansing
I'm Serpent Christ, I am obscene
When they see, they shall lust
I'm falling further down, I burn
Through fire there is cleansing
I shall forever return through fire

Words of I -The Heretic
Regret all Summon the armies of His Majesty's downfall

Consumed by fire as I scream
Through fire there is cleansing
I'm Serpent Christ, I am obscene
When they see they shall know
I'm falling further down, I burn
Through fire there is cleansing
I shall forever return through fire
Through fire, through fire

Acts of I - The Derelict
His grand fall
See me, I lick His wounds as if they were my own
Words of I - The Heretic
Reject all
Summon the demons of His kingdom's downfall

See the blood run from the altar
Unholy coronation, the death of your God
Perversed temptation
Your false beliefs are shattered
Hammered into His cross
Feed me the children of your Lord

So let them be my feast
Drink the blood of me, The Beast
A sacrificial mass, the death of your God
Perversion of temptation
All your gods are murdered
Hammered down into His cross
Feed me your guilt
Invoke me! Serve me!

Consumed by fire as I scream
Through fire there is cleansing
I'm Serpent Christ, I'll intervene
When they burn they shall live

I'm falling further down, I burn
Through fire there is cleansing
I shall forever return through fire

I'm the first of the first and the last of the last
My armor is treason, my sword is regret

In Hell I'm the first of the first
Down here, I finally sleep
And the last of the last
Unsaved, I no longer weep
My shield is disgust
Farewell, through fire I speak
Let none survive!
I travel alone, through fire He arrived
He has returned to bring me back unscathed
Unraveled, alone

I suffer alone, through fire I arrived
I am the unknown, through darkness He arrives

When these words are heard
I'm ashes in your mouth
When all whores are burnt
Like ashes in your mouth
There are no masters

When these words are heard
I'm ashes in your mouth
Where I reside there are no masters
When all whores are burnt
Like ashes in your mouth
When I am done there are no masters
No masters, just graves

Behold the burning of their souls
See the sky in flames
The heir to the Serpent Throne
The new King, The Betrayer

They dwell in the darkness of their graves
The Betrayer, I will betray
Now crown me the new King, The Betrayer
This day, the day of treachery
I will betray, I will betray

Consumed by fire as I scream
Watch them crumble here before me
I'm Serpent Christ, I am obscene
I am the enemy in flesh
I'm falling further down, I burn
The rightful heir to this carnage
I shall forever return
Through fire there is birth

Consume my fire, be with Him
Through fire there is cleansing
I'm Serpent Christ, I'm the Unseen
When they burn they shall live
I'm falling further down to burn
Through fire there is cleansing
I will not ever return
Through fire
