

Cool to Be a Punk

The Quakes

Went out last night to the Continental
Saw a chick and she really look good well
I talked to a guy and he said he knows her
He said she thinks your just a poser

Well it's so cool to be a punk
Commercial TV junk
And I guess I was drunk anyway

Well I turned on my radio
Cruisin' around with no place to go
The station said they play the alternative
Sugar coated and so conservative
