The Queers

Tangerine honey don't be afraid
Everyone gets hurt now and then
Tangerine take a walk in the rain
Watch it turning to snow again
It seems kind of funny when I look back on it now
I'm still working on sorting it out

Time away might have helped to create
A solution more subtle
There's a way but the look on your face
Says there's gonna be trouble
It's a little sad to wake up all alone these days
I'm not sure I'm gonna be ok

Tell it to me tell it to me one more time now
Whatcha wanna do
Do we keep on going?

What a dream oh I couldn't believe
It had all been forgotten yeah
Now I see that I can't take it back
And it's starting to rot again
Tangerine I know what I said
Tangerine it was all in your head

Tangerine I really wanted you to stay (4x)
