

Bitchin' in the Kitchen

The Rakes

In the kitchen of the party
I was sitting on your coat
Your finished sentences for me
Among all the things that you quote

If you're feeling , I'll guide you outside
Where the star of the sea YEAH!
If you really cried than I'll take you outside
Where the star of the sea were blinking at us

Your on the door
And the click of the light
And you're here to have a good time

Your car and your rent
And your money's been spent
And you're here to have a good time

Ever so
Ever so
Ever so nice
Never
Ever
Ever
Ever house the

On the bathroom of the party
You were holding on the cue
And we your and call for you
It was something in the
On the pocket of your coat

And if you're feeling down
Than I'll take you outside
Where the star of the sea were blinking at us

Your pressuring down
In the click of an line
And you're here to have a good time

Your rent was spent
And you money is gone then
You're here to have a good time

If you hang around bitchin in the kitchen
You're not gonna have a good time
If you hang around bitchin in the kitchen
You're not gonna have a good time

One more time
We can riot
We can turn all the
We have secrets behind our smile
But tonight, yeah tonight you're all mine

Say you're riot

Cause you're cought in the line
I'll take you back on my back
Take you back to my home
