

Rascalize

The Rascals

The daydream whispers enter to my head
So I turn to you for another point of view
I remember well you've got those broken footsteps too
And from these tired eyes
We'll rascalize
And find our way through
Because we know exactly where we want to go to

All aboard, the adventure
All aboard, our adventure, our adventure, our adventure

All aboard, the adventure
All aboard, our adventure
All aboard, the adventure
All aboard, our adventure, our adventure, our adventure

And from these tired eyes
We'll rascalize
And find our way through
Because we know exactly where we want to go to

All aboard, the adventure
All aboard, our adventure, our adventure, our adventure, our ad venture
