

As The World Stood Still

The Raven Age

I'm so sick of this repenting for the sins that I've made
Thinking of an afterlife counting down the days 'til I die
Or have I made another mistake
As mankind's creation we suffer 'til we're saved

Can you save me now? I'm falling in deeper
Given one way out, there's nowhere to run

I'm worrying, I'm worrying this time I'll never heal
I'm worrying, I'm worrying this world's standing still
And I'm on my own with the days merging as one
And I'm on my own, this time, this time I'll never heal

Wash away the fear that I can't seem to get out my mind
Everyday another fight, I'm in the dark, I'm begging for light
As time goes on I feel more afraid
Another reminder I cannot change this fate

Everything that I have done I've done for us and now I'm suffer ing and paying for it
Rotting this torment I can't seem to get away
Everything that I have done I've done for us and now I'm suffer
ing and paying for it
Hoping to God in this life there's another way

Can you save me now? I'm falling in deeper
Given one way out, there's nowhere to run

I'm worrying, I'm worrying this time I'll never heal
I'm worrying, I'm worrying this world's standing still
And I'm on my own with the days merging as one
And I'm on my own, this time, this time I'll never heal

I'm worrying, I'm worrying this time I'll never heal
I'm worrying, I'm worrying this world's standing still
And I'm on my own with the days merging as one
And I'm on my own, this time, this time I'll never heal
