

Look what you've done to me, given this burden
This crown of thorns as you're watching me bleed
Key to forgiveness, no matter the outcome
Promise that I'm meant to keep

I vow to give you all my life
The dedication, believe me

Shrouded in clouds of mystery
Making no sense of history
Never to find stigmata
And how could I know?

Forever falling, the battle continues
Reveal stigmata and sever the ties
You turn away with the wounds to remind you
Discover all of the lies

I vow to give you all my life
And fulfill all that awaits me

Shrouded in clouds of mystery
Making no sense of history
Never to find stigmata
And how could I know?

Now I find myself looking for somewhere to hide
And I'm chasing the leaves in the wind
Still, I wait for the moment to finally see
What the future is bringing for me

Hold your breath, smile away
Stand and watch your world decay
Scars appear, sinner's skin
And now they all can find me
All in time, find your place
A life sentence of penance paid
Sentence paralyzed as this fire...
Burns!

Shrouded in clouds of mystery
Making no sense of history
Never to find stigmata
And how could I know?
Pure is the world behind me
Nothing is left to burn me
Never to find stigmata
And how could I know?
