

Tomb Of The Unknown Soldier

The Raven Age

Just another soldier is all they see
And all they're asking for is your sacrifice so they live free
Just another number to the machine
A heartless shell is all a weapon used when God can't save you

Once
The hearts of great men
Are we forsaken?
Is everything we've sacrificed,
Now gone?
Known, but to God a soldier lost

Take away this armor I can reveal
I am the hero made of flesh and blood which can be spilled
These wounds replace the canvas of innocence
A masquerade to display strength when all your weaknesses transcend

Once
The hearts of great men
Are we forsaken?
Is everything we've sacrificed,
Now gone?
Known, but to God a soldier lost

Will you remember my name?
Please tell me that I have not died in vain
We've been fighting for what seems
A lifetime alone now
I join the tomb of the unknown

Feel the fire
Feel the pain
Of the throes
In the end
We're the same
Any rose

Once
The hearts of great men
Are we forsaken?
Is everything we've sacrificed,
Now gone?
Known, but to God a soldier lost

No
We are the martyrs
Gave life for our cause
We are now God's immortal warriors
And lay to rest, brothers in arms

Will you remember my name?
Please tell me that I have not died in vain
We've been fighting for what seems
A lifetime alone now
I join the tomb of the unknown
