

Killer

The Raveonettes

She's standing by my side
With the rain in her hair
She walks away with me
You know people stare
And I know it's not too late
To try

Kill for love but make it so I don't care
Most of the time I felt so alone
Kill for love but make it so I don't care
Most of the time I felt so alone
